Keeping You Informed

Women's Spring Tea

Women, today is the final day to sign up for the annual Women's Spring Tea, which is this Saturday, March 23. Susan Williams of JAARS will be speaking on the topic of "Rhythms of Rest." We will also have the director of House of Pearls in Monroe speaking briefly. The program is 9:30 to 11:45 a.m. This year, daughters 12-years-old and older are invited, and we hope you will also invite an adult family member or friend to join us, too! Sign-up is in the back of the church. Please list all family members and friends who are coming.

A book exchange will be continued this year at the Tea. If you have gently used Christian fiction or non-fiction books to share, please bring your items on the morning of the Tea. And if you see a book on the table at the Tea that looks intriguing, it's yours to take! You don't need to bring a book to take one. Please also remember to bring a donated item (or money) for the House of Pearls. See the inserted list in the House of Pearls brochure.

BE FREE Series - Human Trafficking

Slavery is not only a thing of the past but is alive and well today. Modern day slavery is a bit different from generations past, but the fundamental evil of viewing people as property still exists. In fact, there are more people bought and sold today than at any other time in history. It exists on a global, national, and local level and takes place in hotels, agriculture, day spas and even neighborhoods. Charlotte ranks 8th in the nation and 80% of those trafficked in our own backyard are American women and children. WBC desires to help bind up the broken hearted and set captives free by hosting a series to raise awareness about the fastest growing crime in the world. Join us for our BE FREE series on March 30th, April 13th, May 18th, and June 15th to hear how local agencies, law enforcement, and survivors are combating trafficking. ### White Oak Ministry

Join us March 31st, at 2pm, as we worship with those at White Oak of Waxhaw (a nursing/rehabilitation facility). See Richard Dubois if you would like to take part.

Attention all WBC Ladies!

On Saturday, April 13th, we will be hosting our semi-annual Coffee and Craft morning. Please mark your calendars accordingly; we will be in the sanctuary between 9 AM and noon. This is a drop-in event, most supplies are provided. If you would like to help or have questions, please contact Pat Lundeen by calling or texting 704.953.4981.

ESL Ministry

Interested in outreach to the nations without leaving Waxhaw? Teaching English to immigrants is a great way to do that. We are working on starting an English as a Second Language (ESL) ministry at Waxhaw Bible Church. We plan to start in July, one evening per week, and we are looking for help. Our first and greatest need is for people to be praying. Teachers and an administrator are also needed. As the ministry grows, potential needs include conversation practice partners, child care, and more. Please contact Chuck or Chris Daly or Lars or Kathy Huttar for more information.
